

Know this...."Dammit I'm mad". Spelt backwards is "Dammit I'm mad"

It's August and yes, it's warm!! All I can say is stay safe and use your air conditioning if you have it and can afford it. The wildfires in other countries as well as Spain are worrying and let's hope they can be contained and everyone is safe.

Not long now before our first coffee morning of the new season. Saturday 12th September at the usual place. The Captains Table in Punta Marina. It will be open between 10.30 and 12 noon. It's a chance to catch up, join and pay for any upcoming events.

Over the last few weeks our groups coordinator Michelle has been busy getting ready for the end of September "Discovery Fair". Table plans, new table signs. Make sure you pay a visit, find your next new group, and make some new friends.

Our social events coordinator Dee has been putting together flyers on upcoming events and on new events to be detailed soon...here is a quick sample.

A big thank you to our welfare officer (Ann) this last couple of weeks who sourced a hospital bed for one of our members. Don't be alone if you need anything welfare related.

Not one to miss an opportunity. Don't forget, in the interim period leading up to the April AGM we are still on the look out for.....
